

Callaway Silverado RS

Premium-grade performance.

The Callaway Silverado RS represents our new approach to optimizing GM truck performance. A variety of vehicle configurations is offered, with premium quality components working together to completely transform these trucks.

The RS Equipment Package includes Callaway-integrated systems and components to provide a properly-engineered, lowered stance. More than just enhanced performance, Callaway vehicles are equipped with aesthetically appealing interior, exterior and underhood elements, distinguishing your Silverado as a genuine Callaway.

An extensive array of optional equipment is also offered to let you customize your truck to match your lifestyle.
